

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Privacy Law protections. I can now enjoy a quiet evening at home (without those dreadful telemarketer calls) since Indiana has implemented the Telephone privacy law.